

Course Overview

This Nationally Accredited course is designed for persons who are required to formally inspect height safety equipment.

This course covers the requirements for those who are required to inspect working at heights safety equipment such as harnesses, lanyards, energy absorbers, inertia reels and karabiners as part of the requirements in AS1891.4

Successfully completing this course will allow you to inspect, create registers and tag height safety equipment.

This course does not cover any requirements for repairing height safety equipment.

Upon successful completion of the course, a nationally recognised Statement of Attainment PUAEQU001 Prepare, maintain & Test Response Equipment.

Prepare, maintain & test response equipment PUAEQU001

Course Content

- WHS, Standards & Legislation
- Inspecting and testing equipment in accordance with manufacturers specifications and industry practice
- Identify faulty equipment
- Quarantine faulty equipment
- Record Keeping
- Fault Reporting
- Maintain Records
- The difference between user & non user serviceable equipment
- Practical Assessment
- Written Assessment

It is recommended that all participants have completed RIIWHS204E Work Safely At Height (or equivalent) prior to undertaking this course so they have underpinning knowledge.

Who Should Attend?

- Height Safety Equipment Inspectors
- Supervisors/Managers
- WHS Practitioners
- Equipment Managers

Course Details

Accredited:	Yes
Where:	Our training centre or at your site
When:	See online or as required
Duration:	up to 4 hours

Read More Online...

Provider No: 40349

T: 1300 886477
w: mss-safety.training

